

IOSH SAFETY FOR PROPERTY MANAGERS

Approved For Delivering Remotely

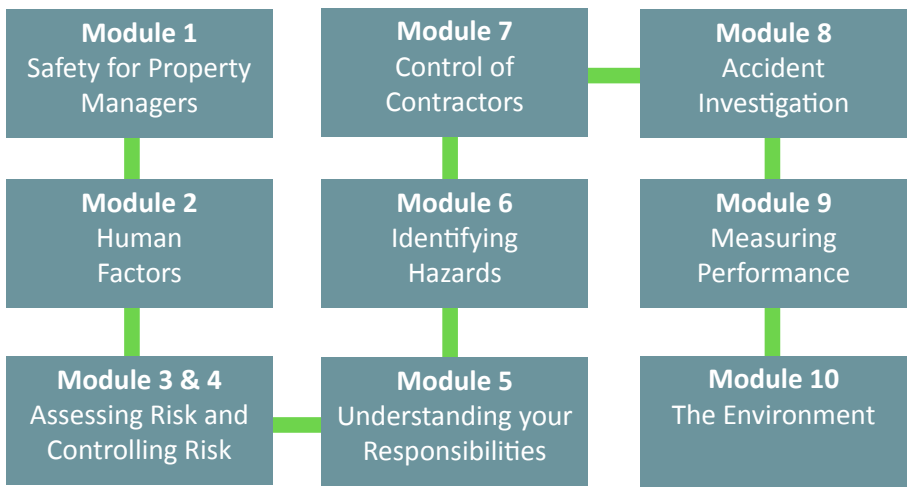

One of our most popular bespoke IOSH accredited courses, specifically aimed at property management professionals, is now being delivered in our virtual classrooms.

“98% of our training meets or exceeds delegates’ expectations”

The traditional course format has been restructured to enable our experienced training consultants to deliver focussed topic sessions, which offer a learning alternative that allows for live interaction with learning activities including exercises, workshops and case study reviews.

THE COURSE:

THE BENEFITS:

- Tutors always available throughout to help and advise
- Full syllabus covered in a virtual classroom
- Course content can incorporate client specific material
- Convenient and cost effective

IOSH Safety for Property Managers Course comprises six half day sessions with a final half day for revision followed by the assessment.

IOSH Safety for Property Managers Refresher Course comprises two half day sessions.
